Background: Jeanne Blackwell was a mom, grandma, long-time teacher, school board member, attorney, and community volunteer/activist. She was a dynamic and giving person, always focusing on helping others to succeed in their own lives. "Jeanne's Purse, Everyone's Grandma" was established to assist youth with paying for registration fees, materials, and other items to promote health, education and well-being. Referrals can come from therapists, social workers, peace officers, teachers, counselors, coaches and others who work with the youth and are aware of specific needs.

Please complete the following:

Referring Person: _____

Title and Organization: _____

Preferred contact method (give phone # or email) _____

Name of youth who needs assistance: _____ Age:_____

Youth's city of residence: _____

Briefly describe what funding is for (attach flyers/registration forms/bills if applicable):

_____

Amount requested: _____

Make check payable to: _____

Address: _____

We will contact referring parties to advise if request can be funded and to determine the best way to disburse payment. Questions should be directed to Lisa Lawrence (760) 887-2307.

Donations to continue and grow this philanthropic project are appreciate and Tax-deductible!
